

Sirs:

I have read with interest the plan put forward regarding the concentration of media. I wonder how you folks can say that it is the right thing to do for the country? It will lead to further consolidation of the already limited number of voices being heard in the news. It strikes me as just the opposite of helpful, and detrimental to our democracy. Please review the goals of your mandate and act accordingly.